

ORGANIZATIONAL FIT

The following statements are generated from your Work Styles scores. Carefully read each statement and check the ones that are most significant to you. Remember, a statement appears because it may be significant for you, not because it is significant. Only you can decide which statements are most relevant to you.

- You think in terms of classic organizational structure; you relate well to the formal management structure of the large organization
- You prefer to manage using a combination of formal management training and field experience; you are inclined to be doubtful of those who are over-dependent on management theory, or of those whose management background is purely experiential
- You tend to be motivated primarily by the inherent interest you have in work or in its results, rather than by work for its own sake
- You can be something of a free-wheeler; you tend to base your actions on what benefits the organization or your immediate group rather than on corporately mandated or abstract values
- You are something of a free spirit; you may be less predictable than other people in terms of your response to the corporate "line" and more inclined to follow your own way of thinking
